The Friends' Prayer

Lord, we ask your blessing on the work of the Friends of Rydal Hall.

Help us as we seek to give support to all who work at Rydal Hall, especially those whose homes are far away.

We ask that you help them to grow and develop in their faith and witness.

Amen

about rydal hall

Rydal Hall has been providing Christian hospitality to people of all faiths or none since 1963.

Owned by the Church of England Diocese of Carlisle, the Hall is a place of hospitality, tranquility and spirituality for all.

It is a place of beauty and peace, loved by the many people who pass through either as day visitors or houseguests. The Hall is run day-to-day by a team which includes an international resident community whose Christian ethos underpins everything it does.

The Friends of Rydal Hall is a voluntary group of people associated with the Hall. It exists to support the work of the Hall and the resident community. Each year, the Friends donate funds to enable community members to optimise their time here as a way of thanking them for their ministry.

Many Friends visit or stay at the Hall regularly and have come to love its distinctive hospitality, tranquility and spirituality.
